RE: TESTIMONIAL LETTER FOR EUGENE NG

Eugene joined the Events Management team in KKH in August 2005. For the past 2 years working with him, he has come across as a team player and an excellent professional conference organiser.

He meticulously plans the projects assigned to him and executes them with precision. He handles his projects independently without supervision, and takes initiative to suggest new ideas when necessary; there were plenty of complimentary tributes to his work ethic.

For example, there was a public forum recently in April 2007 that was not doing well. He came back from his leave to settle some logistical problems, and took the initiative to personally approach the childcare centres in the area to display promotional collaterals to help boost registration numbers.

Eugene is an invaluable, reliable asset to any events/marketing team, and I highly recommend him. If you would like to verify further, please do not hesitate to contact me.
