

To whomever it may concern,

I have known Eugene Ng for a period of one year. He was my student for Drama and Documentary Production and Advanced Video Production at Edith Cowan University.

During this time Eugene has shown himself to be extremely dedicated to his film work. I have to admit that he gave 110% in getting projects completed to their best possible standard. If it were not for his teamwork and morale, the films could not have been finished without him.

The other special skill that he has, is that he is able to work under extreme stress and to tight deadlines. This became very obvious through his work as an editor.

Eugene is friendly and hard working and would be an asset for any work place.

If you have any further enquiries, please do not hesitate in contacting me.

Yours sincerely,
